- ★ Motivate the future leaders of Columbiana County to think strategically about the region

LCC Community Benefit

Leadership Columbiana County participants bring improved leadership and management skills to the everyday work place.

"LCC is a great investment to support the professional growth of employees. The results we have seen include a renewed pride for the local community, increased self confidence and the empowerment to make a difference in the county. The program is rewarding for the employee, the employer and most of all our local community."

John Avdellas
Vice President of Marketing, WTI

LCC Participants

- ★ Mid-level professionals eager to gain new skills to help them advance into leadership roles in their organizations and/or community

LCC Tuition

Tuition of $1,000 covers nine full days of instruction, materials, morning refreshments and lunches.

"Leadership Columbiana County provided me with an education of our county's resources and connected me with a network of other professionals in the county who possess a similar desire to contribute to their community. I would recommend this program to anyone interested in learning more about our county, those looking to meet other professionals, as well as those looking to enhance some of their leadership skills."
